LE GRAND BLEU

Couples particularly like the location - they rated it 9.7 for a two-person trip. We speak your language!
Your stay will include:

Stunning fine sand beaches, raw rocks & cliffs and a rolling countryside.
Welcome to the Opal Coast. Where reality becomes a dream!

Discover the northwestern beauty of France from Equihen-Plage, an authentic fisherman's village, free from metropolitan madness. Luxury holiday villa Le Grand Bleu looks out from the top of the dunes in Le Domaine Sauvage, an area of outstanding natural beauty. The name speaks for itself and fulfills the promise.!

Within this unspoilt environment lies the terrace of Le Grand Bleu, sketching a seldom seen panoramic view of the North Sea. And once inside the vacation home, the Atlantic interior and contemporary comfort make cocooning simply irresistible.

Dream away at the rhythm of the Opal Coast, along chalk-cliffs and picturesque fisherman's villages. The salty sea never is far away, leaving its mark on the gastronomy: ultimately fresh local products will tickle your senses and seduce you with their disarming palette of flavours. If you lose yourself - and the chances are real - in endless bike tours or hikes and your holidays come to an end, all of a sudden, don't worry, you will most definitely come back...
